Faith based counselling on request

I have been married for 27 years and five children age 25 and under

I request 24 hour cancellation notice. If you have insurance it will be billed as a session

Unless you have insurance, service is fee based, $125.00 per hour, cash accepted, exact change, credit card ($3.50 surcharge) or e - transfer. A receipt will be issued. Some group plans/insurance cover your costs, it's the client's responsibility to check in advance.

Client information is kept confidential unless a release of information has been obtained. Confidentiality may be withheld if you present as a danger to yourself, others, or a risk to public safety where arrangements will be made in office prior to your departure to ensure safety.

If this is a mandatory referral by Social Services, Probation Services, a lawyer, doctor or the court process, content from your sessions are subject to being shared. By signing this contract you are agreeing to a release of information.

Parental consent is required to counsel children under the age of 18. Proof of parental custody may be required as well as signed consents by both custodial parents in shared parenting arrangements. Information from sessions can be shared with both custodial parents.

Requests for letters of attendance or reports will require an additional fee of $25.00 in advance in addition to the counselling fee. More lengthy reports may require an additional fee.
